Use these coins to reward your children for their good behaviour or helping around the home. You can print them onto card and give them in recognition of their achievements. You can use them to complete a reward chart, or why not give them to children in place of pocket money or trips out to be cashed in when they have something they would like to buy or do.